ROLL CALL: Stulak, Burlotos, Daniels, Kovak, and Keske. Also present Councilperson Healey and Mayor Beshara, Jocek, R. Swan, Lyons, Ellis, Kahoe and Hudak. Also present B. Glover

The Richfield Village Parks and Recreation Board and the Richfield Village Council met at the Pedigo house on Broadview Rd. with Rob Mogan, landscape architect. They walk the Pedigo property where the proposed road that connects to the road behind the Town Hall and the proposed tennis courts and basketball courts could go.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT: Jocek reported on the upcoming Fall Fest, Sat., Sept. 10, 2016 from 11 am until 5 pm. This year's event will be in conjunction with the Richfield Town Trust and the Friends of Eastwood Preserve. The fund raiser is to Save Our Barn so that we can generate monies to go towards a possible grant. Burlotos suggested that Jocek contact Greg Peterson of the RBSA. He is now doing the RBSA blast.

Community Day went well except for the sparatic rain and the cancellation of Fireworks. The children's games went well and Jocek thanked those board members for helping.

MAYOR'S REPORT: Beshara reported that National Interstate Insurance Company is going to build a addition to their two buildings. There is a new company coming to the Snap-On building it is Dawson Insurance. The Nexxon Tire building will proceed on the South side of Wheatley. Rd.

Beshara stated that Ohio Hardwood Furniture has purchased Dr. Parshalls property and will move their business from Peninsula.

The side walk to Hawthorne Dr. will go out for bids.

The RJRD has agreed to contribute to the Fire Department to purchase a fire rescue "all terrain vehicle".

It was reported that the Richfield Art Studio has gone out of business.
