9:00 Default.

9.01 Payment of Rent. If Tenant shall at any time be in default of payment of rent and should such default continue for ten (10) days after receipt of Tenant of written notice thereof, it shall be lawful for Landlord to terminate this Lease, to re-enter the Premises, and again possess and enjoy the same, and Landlord, in addition, shall have such other remedies as are not or hereafter provided by law. In the event of such re-entry, Landlord shall have the right to recover the possession thereof by legal proceedings or otherwise. Further, in such event, Landlord shall have the right to re-let the Premises for any period equal to or greater or less than the remainder of the unexpired term of this Lease for any rent which it may deem reasonable to any other tenant which Landlord may select, and for any use and purpose which Landlord may designate.

In the event of re-letting, Landlord shall apply the rent therefrom first to the payment of Landlord's reasonable expenses including, but not limited to, expenses of re-letting, and then to the payment of rent and all other sums due from Tenant hereunder. Tenant shall remain liable for any deficiency.

9.03 Other Defaults by Tenant. If there is a default in the performance of any provision of this Lease incumbent upon Tenant to be performed hereunder other than the obligation to pay rent and such default is not cured or is not commenced to be cured with thirty (30) days after receipt by Tenant of written notice from Landlord, the Landlord may, but shall not be obligated so to remedy such breach for the account of Tenant. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for any monies expended by Landlord in curing Tenant's default on the first day of the month following the Landlord's demand upon Tenant for such reimbursement. Monies expended by Landlord under the provisions of this paragraph shall bear interest at the rate of 18% per annum from the date such monies were paid by Landlord to the date of Tenant's reimbursement to Landlord therefore. Landlord's right to cure a default by Tenant shall not become effective if within the thirty (30) day period Tenant commences to cure the default and thereafter diligently performs such acts as may be necessary to cure its default.

10:00 Condemnation. In the event that (1) the entire Premises and/or parking area serving the Premises, or (2) any portion thereof which would significantly affect the ability of Tenant to conduct its business is taken by the power of eminent domain, or the threat of the exercise thereof, then in either instance Tenant may terminate and cancel this Lease by giving Landlord notice in writing effective thirty (30) days prior to such taking and thereupon both parties shall be relieved of any further obligations hereunder to be performed following the date of such termination. In the event the Lease is not terminated and canceled after a condemnation of a portion of the Premises and/or parking area, the rent shall be equitably reduced. Tenant shall not be entitled to any benefits accruing to Landlord under any such eminent domain proceedings; provided, however, Tenant reserves all rights to be paid those benefits to which a tenant is entitled by law under such proceeding.

Attached is a proposed six month lease for the Village of Richfield to use and maintain the grounds of the Richfield Elementary School from March 1, 2007 through August 31, 2007. We enter into such an agreement each year.

I have forwarded this agreement to Mr. Riehl for his review and to prepare legislation for council's approval of the agreement. Please review the agreement and forward to me or Mr. Riehl any questions you may have. I expect the legislation to approve this agreement will be on the agenda for the next council meeting.
