RESOLUTION NO. 30-1990

Offered by Mayor Waszak and All Members of Council

A RESOLUTION TO ANNOUNCE AND PROCLAIM "DRUG FREE WEEK" IN THE VILLAGE OF RICHFIELD FROM APRIL 16 TO APRIL 20, 1990.

WHEREAS: The single most significant social problem in the United States of America is drug abuse, and

WHEREAS: The drug dealers clientele of preference is the youth of our community, and

WHEREAS: The success of our war on drugs depends on the participation of the school, the family, and the entire community, and

WHEREAS: The week of April 16 to April 20, 1990 has been designated as "DRUG FREE WEEK" by the Revere and Copley-Fairlawn School Districts.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

SECTION 1:

The Mayor and Council of the Village of Richfield join with and support the Revere and Copley-Fairlawn School Districts in their "DRUG FREE WEEK" efforts.

SECTION 2:

The Government of the Village of Richfield asks the entire community to join the war on drugs.

SECTION 3:

Each opportunity to encourage a drug free life will be exploited, and the Mayor and Council of the Village of Richfield will steadfastly support a comprehensive Anti-Drug Abuse Campaign that combines the efforts of the educators, families, citizens, government, and rigid law enforcement.
