Re: Resolution No. 55-1997 (Additional Appropriations)

Explanation of items listed for appropriation:

General Fund:

- 1) Village received reimbursement for hazmat supplies used on a hazmat call - supplies will need replacement - amount shown is amount received.
- 2) Environmental - Increased contract amount with Davey Tree.
- 3) Administrative - Legal - $5,000. paid to Insurance Company on lawsuit (our deductible) Costs to date have been for Cable issue, A T & T Tower issue, Land purchases., etc. and payment to insurance company.
- 4) Zoning - Legal - Costs represent legal representation for zoning meetings, zoning lawsuits such as C. Nelson.
- 5) Zoning - Engineering - A portion of these costs are reimbursed to the Village - approximately $3,800. through July.

Capital Improvement Fund:

- 1) Computers, etc. - Computer for Service Director
- 2) Transfer to CDBG Grant Fund - When costs for 18th year Grant were submitted to CDBG, the expenses for storm sewer work in the center of town were disallowed.

Sewer Operations:

- 1) Pump Station Equipment - As advised by our Service Director, approximately $14,000 was needed for pump materials we could repair and $39,100 for contract to bypass piping contractor.

If additional information is needed, please advise.
