

RESOLUTION NO. 109-1995

Offered by All of Council

A RESOLUTION ACKNOWLEDGING MAYOR WASZAK'S OCCUPANCY OF
THE VILLAGE HALL

WHEREAS, Ralph R. Waszak, through a gross mistake at the Summit County Board of Elections, was awarded the election as Mayor of the Village of Richfield beginning in 1988; and

WHEREAS, everybody in Richfield wishes that Mayor Waszak did not choose to run again in 1991; and

WHEREAS, under again suspicious circumstances, Mayor Waszak was reelected in 1991; and

WHEREAS, everyone wishes that the circumstances of the reelection would be thoroughly investigated; and

WHEREAS, about the best that can be said for Mayor Waszak is that he occupied an office in the Town Hall during his period of years as Mayor; and

WHEREAS, Ralph Waszak adopted as the theme of his administration "an uncluttered desk leads to an uncluttered mind", and

WHEREAS, Mayor Waszak rules Mayor's Court with an iron fist and became affectionately known as "The Hanging Judge of Richfield", and

WHEREAS, Mayor Waszak is known as the "Sewer King" of Richfield.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the Village of Richfield, on behalf of itself and its citizens, we embarrassingly acknowledge Mayor Waszak's occupancy of one room at Town Hall for the past eight years and with heartfelt joy and anticipation we look forward to his leaving office as soon as possible.

Adopted this 19th day of December, 1995.
